17 JAN 1977

Lieutenant General Samuel V. Wilson, USA
Director, Defense Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20301

Dear Sam:

As Chairman of the National Foreign Intelligence Board, I want to express my gratitude to you for your outstanding contributions to the Board's work during my tenure.

As the DIA member, you represented the views of elements of the Department of Defense with skill and candor. More importantly, you brought to the Board a personal conviction about vital national security concerns which permitted the Board to consider issues from a national viewpoint.

I have valued your advice and assistance, and I take this opportunity to wish you well in the days ahead.

Sincerely,

/s/ George Bush
